(Tshombé's attitude will provoke considerable protest from other African leaders attending the current conference in Cairo of the Organization of African Unity. Many African states, including moderate ones, have recognized Roberto's organization as the legitimate government of Angola, and its exclusion from the Congo would terminate its already limited military effectiveness.)

(Tshombé and Roberto may confront each other at Cairo later this week. Roberto is scheduled to fly there on 15 July, and Tshombé has said he will accompany President Kasavubu to the conference on 17 July.)
